WORTHY OF PRAISE – VOLUME II

Salads Popeye would have written home about!

MAGGIANO'S SPINACH SALAD:

Those of you who know, will nod your heads in agreement with this selection. Tender leaf spinach tossed with roasted red peppers, sweet roasted onions, gorgonzola cheese, pancetta dressing and topped with bacon and toasted pine nuts. A stand-alone meal in itself, it requires no other explanation.

BAZBEAUX'S SPINACH SALAD:

Most every Friday you can find the Eriksen family at Bazbeaux's Pizza along the canal in Broadriple. Sure, we love the pizza, but what Stephanie and I really look forward to is this salad. So simple, but so great! Spinach, mushroom, bacon, egg, red onion, black olives and mozzarella. Try it with the Creamy Basil or the Creamy Cucumber. Save room for the pizza though!

Located: 811 E. Westfield Blvd – along the canal in Broadriple or

WHEN EDDIE MET SALAD:

A good friend recommends this cleverly named restaurant tucked away behind Eddie Merlot's. Create your OWN spinach salad (or any other kind) for a fabulous, healthy meal at a reasonable price! It's a nutritious alternative to a typical fast food meal.
