WORTHY OF PRAISE – VOLUME X

“Brunch” Eateries Giving Café Patachou a Run for Their Money...

Taste Café & Marketplace

All I can say is WOW! The buzz inside was the first indication that they must be doing something right – the place was packed. Ever go to a place where you can't wait to go back and try ten more items on the menu? The special was a cheddar and bacon quiche – and it was fantastic. Can quiche really be fantastic? Would a real man know? No matter, it was great. Most importantly you have the sense that everything sous chef, Paul Tischler, prepares is fresh, healthy, and lovingly executed. It may be crowded – but it's worth it.

Located: 5164 N. College Avenue
Hours: Tues - Fri 7am-3pm; Sat & Sun Brunch 8am-3pm

A2Z Café

The skillet dishes, omelettes, and “daddy’s breakfast pie” all hit the spot, but during the lunching hours, I've found myself gravitating towards Antonio’s Pasta and Zulma’s Penne. A2Z, named for owners Ashraf and Zulma (and their son Antonion), is not your average brunch. There's a cultural fusion and care that goes with pride into each dish. A2Z will also host and create a menu for special events or private parties as well!

Located: 4705 E. 96th Street, Suite 35
Hours: Daily 6:30am - 3:00pm

Café Patachou

I cannot introduce these two new venues without paying homage to the time-tested and always wonderful Patachou. My lazy Saturday morning @ Patachou is complete with a white-Vermont-cheddar-and-premium-ham omelette, a side of cinnamon toast, fresh squeezed orange juice and a cup of coffee. Please note there are two new locations in Indy – check the website for details.

Located: Carmel, Mer-Ksslr, Dwntrwn, Keystone @ The Crossing
Hours: Mon-Fri 7am-3pm; Sat & Sun 8am-2pm
Contact: www.cafepatachou.com (check website for directions!)
