KEEP THE RACING MONTH GOING AT CHEQUERED FLAG CAFÉ

Tucked away in a non-descript strip center in Carmel is an unassuming little dining room decked out in racing memorabilia. The décor and ambience will never win awards, but after one meal, you'll never care - and here's why...

Cheese My Baby...

Since I told you all about a sandwich at another restaurant that brought tears to my eyes a couple months ago, I'm not certain what this is going to do to my credibility, but I've got a new favorite sandwich. Cheese My Baby: Turkey breast, Colby-jack & Swiss, bacon, lettuce, tomato and mayo. Now there's nothing magic in those ingredients per se. The magic lies in the perfect ASSEMBLY of the sandwich and the fact that it's served on – hold on to your seat – thick-cut Vienna bread with cheese baked into it! The presentation is gorgeous and the blend of flavors of otherwise “traditional” ingredients is fabulous. The first time I ordered it I took a picture of it with my camera phone and sent it to my sister. (Is that pathetic?)

Chicken & Feta...

On a recent visit, my friend ordered the Chicken & Feta skillet. She's one of those people that actually eats healthy things, and this item fell under the “low carb” section of the menu, (a place I would certainly never venture to order from, but gladly recommend to others ☺). Ahhh, but I judged too quickly in this case, because when her meal arrived it was absolute heavenly. Chicken breast strips, onion, tomato, quartered artichoke hearts and melted feta served open-faced on toasted multi-grain wheat. This entrée could stand alone at ANY upscale restaurant.

Thunderbird Melt...

This was my first visit to the low carb menu. I was so inspired by our success with the Chicken & Feta, that I had to try this one. Grilled chicken strips, turkey breast, hard salami & olive oil topped with diced tomatoes, Jalapeno peppers & melted Colby-jack cheese in a skillet. Amazing flavor with a kick. It's nice to know that healthy eating can taste like this.

But I'm not done! There are honorable mentions here as well: One of the best Philly cheese steaks I've ever had, fabulous homemade soups (try the cream of potato), and finish it all off with a giant black & white cookie for dessert.
